

history detectives

Watch a Korean War story on HISTORY DETECTIVES

Monday July 26 at 9PM/8 Central
(check your local listings)

HISTORY DETECTIVES tells the touching story of an Outpost Harry Soldier (MIA) and the man who saved his life.

Rhonda never met her father, Ron Bradley. The US counts Bradley among the more than 8,000 soldiers declared Missing In Action during the Korean War. Rhonda only knows her father from letters and photos her mother saved for her. She's hoping History Detectives can help her solve a mystery posed in one of his letters. The letter tells of a firefight that nearly cost him his life. He names another soldier who saved his life by jumping on a live grenade. Rhonda asks the History Detectives to help her find closure in the story of this mystery hero. In his quest, host Eduardo Pagán meets a man who served along side Rhonda's father, and finally discovers a revealing connection.

This summer watch HISTORY DETECTIVES Mondays at 9pm/8 Central right after Antiques Roadshow

Thank you, OPHSA, for including the HISTORY DETECTIVES Korean War Letter at its 2010 Reunion

